De. Wan 1958

by Chef Wan

A Truly Malaysian Modern Restaurant & Event Venue

De.Wan 1958 by Chef Wan presents the experience of a modern Malaysian culinary adventure brought to life by the multiple award-winning chef, Datuk Redzuawan Ismail or better known as Chef Wan.

As a culinary ambassador for Tourism Malaysia, Chef Wan travels around the world to promote our country's unique food culture and his name is synonymous with Southeast Asian cuisine. The idea of De.Wan 1958 came about because he believes that good food brings people closer together, regardless of cultures and background.

Spreading over a spacious 13,000 sq feet of space at The LINC, Kuala Lumpur, we are not only a restaurant to savour diversified Malaysian cuisine but also a state-of-the-art venue designed for an immersive event experience. The Idea

The inspiration was really simple – to redefine Malaysian cuisine and food culture.

One of the most important goals for Chef Wan is to raise awareness of Malaysian food at the international level. It is a cuisine that is full of flavours and colours influenced by the diverse culture that the country is blessed with yet not many people know about what an authentic Malaysian cuisine taste like. So he knew that one day he would return home to make this dream into a reality.

It would be a place where he can freely share his culinary passion with people who love food as much as he does; it would also be a place where people can create lasting memories and impressions.

This is the concept that De.Wan 1958 by Chef Wan is built upon.

Food brings love and peace to the table.”

- Chef Wan
